

Virtual support group for Brain Injury Survivors

For brain injury survivors, providers, and caregivers.

NDBIN and University of Mary are excited to announce collaboration on a virtual support group for brain injury survivors!

This limited time support group series will give survivors the tools they need to tackle brain injury issues such as anxiety, depression, coping, social skills, and also will give 2nd year occupational therapy students a chance to get clinical experience within the brain injury world.

If you are a brain injury survivor, please join us on Mondays at 2pm Central, from October 5-November 23.
