BOOK CLUB

Survivors

Great way to build up social skills, meet new people, and learn something new in the process. You may also find reading can help increase your attention in other areas.

Participants will read 25-30 pages weekly before attending class, and then will engage in word work, word games, socialization, snacks, etc.

Caregivers

Time to meet others caring for a survivor of brain injury, or time to yourself!

When

Every Wednesday (except November 22) • 9:00—11:30 am Central

September 13	October 11	November 8
September 20	October 18	November 15
September 27	October 25	November 29
October 4	November 1

First selected book:
Out of My Mind

Where

Edgewood 55+ 749 S 30th St, Grand Forks. Park in the southeast event parking lot, and the class is held in the multipurpose room. See map below.

Register

This book club is limited to 10 survivors of brain injury. Registration is provided at no cost due to generous funds from the North Dakota Brain Injury Network, Home Therapy Solutions, and Edgewood 55+. Survivors of brain injury will need to register for the book club. The deadline for registration is August 14.
