

Brain Injury Survivor Opportunity Network (B.I.S.O.N.)

Are you a survivor ready to use your lived experience to educate the public, share stories, and build community understanding across North Dakota? Then B.I.S.O.N. might be right for you. We are a statewide community of brain injury survivors who come together to connect, encourage one another, and take active steps to raise public awareness.

What is B.I.S.O.N.?

A place for members to come together monthly to:

- Develop Your Story: Learn how to effectively use your lived experience to educate and inspire others.
- Share Experiences: Connect with other survivors to build a stronger public voice.
- Get Involved: Explore creative ways to spark conversations in local communities.
- Improve Awareness: Educate North Dakota communities about brain injuries.
- Advocate for Change: Lend your voice to efforts that influence policy, funding, and community support for people with brain injuries.

Is B.I.S.O.N. for You?

- Open to anyone with a brain injury who is ready to make a difference in their community.
- Family members may participate if representing someone with a brain injury who cannot attend themselves.
- Designed for those who want to take action and increase public understanding.

Meeting and Joining Details

- When: Second Monday of each month at 6:00 PM Central.
- Where: Virtually online (accessible statewide across North Dakota).
- Try It Out: Attend up to two monthly meetings as a guest to see our team in action.
