

2017 Annual Mind Matters Conference

MARCH 24th & 25th

Radisson, Bismarck, North Dakota

Who Should Attend

The Mind Matters Conference attracts a diverse, multidisciplinary range of professionals due to the array of providers needed to successfully support individuals after a brain injury. Doctors, nurses, rehabilitation professionals, neuropsychologists, psychologists, behavioral health counselors, educators, vocational specialists, paraprofessionals, individuals with brain injury, and family members are invited to attend.

Objectives

The purpose of this two-day conference is to highlight new research, trends, practice strategies, and collaborative models of care. Innovative approaches and new systems of care for individuals living with a brain injury will be presented through discussion, lecture, case studies, and exhibits.

Keynote Speakers

- Cheryle Sullivan, MD “Brain Injury Survival Kit” • www.braininjurysurvivalkit.com
- Judy Siegle, “Living Without Limits” • www.judysiegle.com
